IN COLLABORATION WITH

WOUND TO WELLNESS

DAY 1 - WEDNESDAY, MAY 10, 2023

0845 - 0900 Registration

0900 - 0915 Welcome, Introductions and Opening Remarks

Territorial Acknowledgement

In Winnipeg, the land on which we gather is on Treaty 1 territory and we gather on the traditional territory of Anishinaabeg, Cree, Oji-Cree, Dakota, and Dene Peoples, and the homeland of the Metis Nation.

0900 - 10:30 Traditional Values and Colonization

Understanding living one's values as a foundation of wellness and the reason many do not live their values is essential to confronting violence. Indigenous violence, substance misuse and suicide are often understood as a mental health problem with a medical/psychological solution. While this is true in some cases, these issues can be better understood as a community problem rooted in the insults of colonization.

1030 - 1045 Tea & Coffee Service

1045 - 1200 Colonization and Mental Health

A "post-colonial" approach to Indigenous mental health will be explored to reduce the risk that we colonize those who we care for by accident.

1200 - 1315 No-Host Lunch

1315 - 1430 Understanding Violence-Related Trauma

An introduction to trauma as a biological injury and as a psychological problem that links to violence and other mental health and social problems in a community will be reviewed. An introduction to trauma as a psychological problem that links to the most common mental health and social problems in a community will be introduced.

1430 - 1445 Tea & Coffee Service

1445 - 1600 Understanding Violence-Related Trauma Continued

The impacts of chronic childhood Trauma on identity will be reviewed. And an exploration of the problem of and solution for three trauma-related community issues—(1) intergenerational trauma, (2) learned helplessness, and (3) lateral violence/hostile dependency completes the conversation.

DAY 2 - THURSDAY, MAY 11, 2023

0900 - 1015 Culture & Wellness

The “cure” for the psychological impacts of colonization will be identified and a culturally-rooted community-oriented approach to resilience and wellness will be offered. The four branches of wellness will be explored in this session; namely caring-connection, respectful-empowerment, a meaningful-role/identity, and cultural/spiritual-wisdom. These sources can be combined into two branches of wellness: self-worth and a worthwhile life.

1015 - 1030 Tea & Coffee Service

1045 - 1200 The Two Branches of Wellness

A worthwhile life is the antidote to colonization. This path will be explored in terms that will assist people to become more positively engaged in their lives, their families and their communities/culture. Self-Worth, the second branch of wellness, is our source of strength in the face of violence-related trauma will be explored.

1200 - 1315 No-Host Lunch

1315 - 1430 Self-Worth and Replacing Violence with wellness

After completing the discussion of self-worth, the purpose of violence will be explored in relation to self-worth. The Replacement Technique that is used to understand and to change “bad” or violent behavior will be introduced.

1430 - 1445 Tea & Coffee Service

1445 - 1600 Balance and Wellness

The balance of two Traditional caregiver values—Care and Respect—will be examined in relation to helping and healing.

DAY 3, FRIDAY, MAY 12, 2023

0900 - 1015 Validation-Invitation 2-Step Technique

The Validation-Invitation 2-Step Technique that allows for boundaries to be maintained and enhances the capacity of clients to heal will be introduced.

1015 - 1030 Tea & Coffee Service

1045 - 1200 Responding to Violence-Related Trauma

The three steps of violence-related trauma healing—specifically (1) safety and stability (including grounding and de-activation skills), treatment (to be discussed later), and (3) re-integration (reclaiming wellness, discussed previously)—will be discussed.

1200 - 1315 No-Host Lunch

1315 - 1430 The Four Paths of Healing

The four paths of traditional healing—both a cultural and spiritual and psychological or social branches; that is, the growth path (with a goal of integrating our lives and becoming whole), cleansing (with a goal of releasing the problem), transcendence (with a goal of rising above the problem) and transformation (with a goal of rebirth) will be introduced with clinical examples.

1445 - 1545 The Four Paths of Healing Continued

The four paths of traditional healing—both a cultural and spiritual and psychological or social branches; that is, the growth path (with a goal of integrating our lives and becoming whole), cleansing (with a goal of releasing the problem), transcendence (with a goal of rising above the problem) and transformation (with a goal of rebirth) will be introduced with clinical examples.
